

Characters: (keep it simple. Just one or two)

Setting: Think of a place you already know, then fill in the 5 senses bubble

Title

This will help you imagine your setting

Checklist:

Wow words

Have I included powerful description?:

Punctuation:

Check for missing capital letters and full stops.

Have I included: , ;
" " () ? ! - -

Connectives:

Have I used a range of connectives and different sentence openers?

Have I included one of the MAPS?

Metaphor

Alliteration

Personification

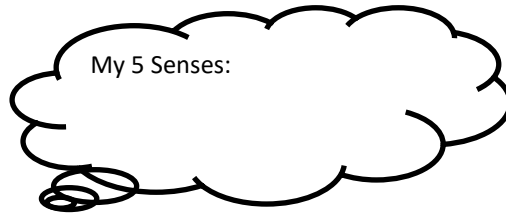

Simile

- Introduce the characters and setting
- Introduce the main event
- Explain what you did to sort things out
- Conclusion—tie up all the loose ends—no cliff-hangers, or 'and then I woke up'

If you write one paragraph for each bullet point you should have time to finish your story and have 5 minutes left to use your checklist for editing your work.

Characters:

Setting:

Title:

Checklist:

Wow words

Punctuation:

Connectives:

Metaphor

Alliteration

Personification

Simile

- -
- -
- -
- -

Characters: Me, the dog,

Setting: The woods— a misty day

Title: Lost

Checklist:

Wow words

Eerie, petrified, irrational

Punctuation:

"" - call dog

? Rhetorical Q

() ;

Connectives:

Nevertheless, subsequently,
initially, moreover

Metaphor—mist is a cloak

Alliteration misty, murky moist

Personification running like a cheetah

Simile

- - Walking puppy in woods—describe woods and puppy
- - The mist gets thicker, odd noise and dog runs off - Chase dog. Find her but realise we're lost. Panic
- Hear muffled car noises—walk towards them. Find road and make way back to car park.
- - Get home and book training classes